Today's readings are all about love — the radical love of God for His people and the radical love we are called to live out in response. Jesus sums up the message of all the prophets, as well as the purpose of all

God's laws in today's Gospel passage, from Matthew. It is a message we have likely grown up hearing — but it is so beautiful and so challenging, it bears repeating again and again. It is Christ's response to a question about which commandment is greatest. His answer reveals both the greatest and the second greatest commandments.

He says, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind... The second is like it: you shall love your neighbor as yourself." Love God first and love neighbor as self. This is the heart of the stewardship way of life — simple enough for a child to understand, challenging enough to be the life's work of every "grown-up."

A Prayer for Those Who Have Died

God of Consolation,
 We remember those who died.
 For those who passed away quietly, we ask for a joyful passage into your spacious heart.
 For those who suffered great pain, we ask for respite and the comfort of your compassionate embrace.
 For those who died too soon, in sudden and unexpected ways, we ask for peace and surrender into your loving care.
 Grant all of those who have died the grace of your eternal light and life.
 Amen.
